I am not impressed with the leadership at our precinct (Tillman) and our police chief, Chief. We need more officers and pay them more money. Also, they should have domestic violence training. The police should go back to the whole Blue Crush community policing model. I feel like crime in the community will not complete online surveys. You have to set up personal interaction with the community.

Police waste too much time on minor traffic offenses when they should be out fighting the bad guys.

I've seen MPD officers are trying their best and so care about the citizens. However, I do believe that, aware, we need more police officers on the streets in Memphis.
